Thomas Burton is an impressive batting all-rounder (off spin) from Yorkshire, England.

The Englishman is a hard hitting right handed top order batter, and more than handy right arm off spinner who has represented Yorkshire County Cricket Club through pathway cricket, right up until the 18s side & Academy.

Burton is into his 4th year of 1st XI cricket in the strong Bradford Premier League. He initially represented Lightcliffe Cricket Club an racked up 44 games including 5 half centuries, and the last 2 years impressing for East Brierley Cricket Clubwith a similar amount of games with 4 half centuries with a high score of 90.

In 2022 & 2023 Burton really impressed for Yorkshire with nearly 1000 runs across the 2 years averaging in the early 30's with a high score of 142 not out. Moving forward the Yorkshireman is keen to break into the professional ranks and now sees 6 months in Australia as integral in his cricketing development.

No doubt a more than handy last minute pick up, who ideally wants to be in/around Melbourne...
