Thomas Law is a young and passionate seam bowler from Manchester, United Kingdom.

He represents his home club, Walshaw Cricket Club, in the Greater Manchester Premier League, where he has become a key figure in the Club's Second XI. Over the past two seasons, Thomas has delivered consistently impressive performances with the ball, claiming 70 wickets at an outstanding average of 12.77, with best figures of 6/56.

Heading into the 2026 season, Law is determined to build on this strong foundation and push for a place in the First XI. His goal is to gain further exposure and experience before taking the next step with a season in Australia.

In addition to his seam bowling, Thomas takes great pride in his fielding and is widely regarded as one of the strongest fielders at the club, adding further value to his overall contribution on matchdays.

Committed and enthusiastic, Thomas is ready to fully immerse himself in his host club's culture and aims to be a genuine asset both on and off the field.

Thomas will be travelling alongside his teammate and close friend, Sam Openshaw, and they are keen to be based at the same club. Both are open to securing their own accommodation for the right opportunity for the 2026/27 season.
