Tiago Dias (18) is a high class opening batter and wicketkeeper, known for his positive intent and ability to dominate the new ball at the top of the order. A composed and confident presence, Dias is also a European Passport holder (Portuguese).

A reliable performer behind the stumps, Tiago is sharp, agile, and dependable, demonstrating excellent technique and composure under pressure. Whether batting or keeping, he brings calmness and clarity to high-pressure situations, making him a valuable asset to any side.

During the 2025/2026 season, Tiago has been in outstanding form across all formats (50-over, T20, and time cricket), scoring 1,385 runs in 34 innings at an average of 49.46 and a strike rate of 103.26. Across his broader playing record, he maintains an impressive strike rate of 120 while averaging 55 runs per season, highlighting both his consistency and ability to score at a high tempo.

Tiago has progressed through the highly competitive Provincial Central Gauteng Lions pathway, representing the union at Under-14, Under-15, Under-16, and Under-17 levels. This experience has played a key role in shaping his cricketing development and understanding of the game at a high-performance level.

Currently, Tiago represents GM Old Edwardians Cricket Club in the Enza Premier League, where he continues to perform as a leading top-order batter and wicketkeeper. His contributions extend beyond performance, as he is recognised as a strong team player with excellent cricketing intelligence and natural leadership qualities on the field.

Tiago is a thoughtful and strategic cricketer who reads the game well and leads by example through his performances and attitude. His combination of skill, consistency, and leadership makes him a standout player with the potential to succeed at higher levels of the game.

Tiago is now seeking further opportunities to challenge himself in competitive environments, where he can continue to develop his game while contributing as a top-order wicketkeeper-batter and leader within the team. Available for opportunities in Europe Only.
