Tim Seeto (21) is an extremely talented wicket-keeper batter from Christchurch, New Zealand.

A young cricketer who prides himself on bringing energy both on and off the field, the Kiwi is a versatile right-handed top-order batter & exceptional gloveman.

The 21-year-old has has represented Canterbury Under-19s and enjoyed a standout 2022/23 season, being named New Zealand Young Cricketer of the Year.

In the same campaign, Seeto helped secure the Gillette Cup National Title, where he was awarded Tournament MVP. In his preferred format of one-day cricket, over the last two seasons Tim has scored 916 runs from 26 innings at an average of 43.62, including a highest score of 160.

Tim currently plays for Burnside West Christchurch University in the OEM Audio Mens Premiership. A regular in the 1st XI, Tim sets himself seriously high standards and continues to develop all three facets of his game.

Due to his representative honours for Canterbury U19's, Tim is only eligible to play in the EU for the upcoming 2026 season & has recently put pen to paper to spend the Summer with Hoofdklasse side, Salland.
