Tom Brooks is an exciting bowling all-rounder from New South Wales, Australia. Available for Holland & The Republic Of Ireland Only

A right-arm leg-spinner, the 25-year-old has hugely impressive credentials to his name already and is continuing to impress & push for higher honours.

In 2024, Brook was selected to play for the Melbourne Renegades Academy in the T20 series in Darwin that acts as a feeder to the Big Bash League.

Playing in 5 fixtures for the Renegades Academy, Tom then returned to New South Wales playing for Western Suburbs District Premier Grade side and taking 26 wicket across all formats in 2024/25.

After impressing during his time with Melbourne Renegades, Brooks headed over to Victoria playing a number of Premier Grade games for Prahran & making his Victoria 2nd XI debut in November 2024, claiming 3-74 of 25 overs and claiming the wicket of Caleb Jewell.

Now back playing for Western Suburbs in NSW for the ongoing 2025/26 season, Brook has impressed yet again taking a staggering 46 wickets at an average of 19.65 during the First Grade Summer to date.

Clearly a reliable performer with his leg spin, Brook also bats in the middle-order and averages in the late teens in Grade Cricket, so he is certainly capable of providing matching winning performances.

Deemed pathway due to his recent 2nd XI State games, Brooks is looking for opportunities in Europe for the upcoming 2026 Summer.
