Tom King (23) is a reliable top-order batter and right-arm medium pace bowler from Norfolk, England.

A composed right-hander, Tom is known for his calm and steady approach at the crease, building innings through patience, control, and strong shot selection.

He currently represents Bircham Cricket Club First XI in the Norfolk Cricket Alliance Division Two.

Tom made his First XI debut back in 2015 as a 14-year-old, before fully establishing himself within the senior side during the 2019 season. Since then, he has accumulated 1,700+ runs at an average exceeding 20, including eight half-centuries and two centuries.

Alongside his batting, Tom has proven himself as a highly effective seam option. Operating as either an opening or first-change bowler, his right-arm medium pace generates swing and subtle seam movement, allowing him to consistently challenge batters and create opportunities. To date, he has claimed 147 wickets at an impressive average of 19.41.

Tom also brings valuable overseas experience, having spent both the 2024/25 and 2025/26 seasons in Australia, continuing to develop his game in foreign conditions.

Now eager to return overseas once again, King is looking to further test himself and continue his progression.

A dependable all-round cricketer with strong club experience and proven adaptability abroad, Tom would be a valuable addition to any side seeking a committed and versatile player for the upcoming season.
