Umer Zeeshan Lohya is an emerging talent looking to break into professional cricket.

He has already featured for Maratha Arabians (2019 - UAE T10), and Overseas Warriors (2022 - Kashmir Premier League) and Quetta Gladiators (PSL), rubbing shoulders with the likes of Yuvraj Singh, Dasun Shanaka, Chris Lynn, DJ Bravo, Lasith Malinga, and head coach, Andy Flower (Arabians), and Asad Shafiq, Azam Khan, and Kamran Ghulam (Warriors).

Holder of a British Passport, the Hertfordshire-based all-rounder of Pakistan origin, boasts an impressive youth career to date, and is now looking to put in some strong performances at club level.

A top-order batter who bowls off-spin, Lohya has played age-group representative cricket in Pakistan (Karachi U19s), New Zealand (Horowhenua Kapiti U19s), and England (Northamptonshire U17s, U16s, Middlesex U15s).

For 2026, he is looking to make an impact at club cricket level and will be based from his accommodation in Totteridge, London and represents an exciting signing for any club in the near vicinity.
