Umm-e-Hani is a Pakistani all-rounder who has represented Pakistan across international, domestic, and emerging-level cricket. A versatile player who brings value with both bat and ball, her off-spin bowling is one of her key strengths.

As a bowler, Umm-e-Hani is known for her accuracy and variations, allowing her to adapt to different match situations. Her repertoire includes the arm ball and the slider, along with the ability to vary her pace and lengths to create breakthroughs at crucial moments.

She began her domestic career in 2018, representing PCB Dynamites in the Triangular Tournament and reaching the final, before going on to represent PCB Blasters, PCB Challengers, and Strikers, and attending multiple Pakistan national team camps. She made her ODI debut for Pakistan against Ireland in Pakistan in November 2022, and has since represented Pakistan in international series against South Africa, Bangladesh, New Zealand, England, and the West Indies, making her T20I debut in September 2023. She has also represented Super Women in PSL exhibition matches, gaining experience playing alongside and against international overseas players.

Umm-e-Hani has progressed through Pakistan's domestic cricket structure, represented Pakistan A, and played at major international events including the 2023 Asian Games and the 2023 ACC Emerging Asia Cup, where Pakistan A reached the semi-finals. She finished as Pakistan's highest wicket-taker in overseas international cricket during the 2023–24 season, and was named Player of the Tournament in the 2025 domestic ODI season. She has since returned to the Pakistan national side for an away series in South Africa and a recent series against Sri Lanka, contributing crucial breakthroughs in high-pressure moments.

Currently part of the Pakistan Women's National Cricket Team for the 2026 DP World Asia Cup, and selected for the 2026 Asian Games, Umm-e-Hani continues to develop as a complete all-rounder while aiming to make a strong impact in high-pressure international cricket.

In her own words:

"To establish myself as a consistent and impactful bowling all-rounder at the highest level of international cricket. I aim to continuously evolve my game, learn new skills, explore different aspects of cricket, and push my limits to become a more complete and dependable player. My goal is to contribute to Pakistan's success and make a meaningful impact in major international tournaments."
