Wallace Tapiwanashe Mubayiwa is a dedicated and versatile Zimbabwean cricketer, offering left-arm spin and useful contributions with the bat in the middle to lower order. His journey from grassroots cricket at age 12 to representing Zimbabwe U19s and the A team reflects his strong work ethic and rising potential.

He made his List A debut for the Midwest Rhinos in 2022, followed by his first-class debut in 2023/24, steadily climbing the domestic ranks. A gold medallist at the All Africa Games and part of Zimbabwe A's UK tour, Wallace has already gained valuable international experience.

Off the field, he holds an ECB Core Coach qualification, underlining his commitment to the game beyond playing. Passionate about mentoring, he's keen to contribute to junior development during his time abroad.

With his all-round skill set, leadership qualities, and coaching ambition, Wallace would be a valuable overseas player-coach option for UK clubs in 2026. He is eager for his maiden club stint and would be a great addition both on and off the field.
