Will Burston (22), a talented batter from Bristol, England.

Burston is a skilled and adaptable batter, representing his home club, Keynsham Cricket Club, in the West of England Premier Cricket League. Having progressed through the ranks from U9s to becoming a vital member of the First XI

Will's early promise saw him selected for the Somerset County Cricket Club Pathway System, where he developed his game from U10 through U18. While narrowly missing out on an Academy scholarship, the opening batter continued to excel, demonstrating his ability to play all around the ground and adapt his approach to suit the situation—whether grinding out tough runs or dominating the opposition with fluent stroke play.

Currently in his final year at the University of Birmingham, Will has captained the 1st XI over the past two seasons, leading from the front as their top run-scorer. Under his leadership, the team has enjoyed strong campaigns in the BUCS Midlands Division 1, with Will playing a pivotal role in their success.

When back home in Bristol, Will seamlessly slots into the top order for Keynsham. Despite balancing his studies, he has amassed over 1600 runs across the past three seasons, averaging just shy of 40, with four hundreds to his name.

Eager to elevate his game further, Will is looking to take on the challenges of overseas cricket, immersing himself in new environments and embracing the culture and experiences that come with it.

Off the field, Will is a qualified coach, eager to contribute to his new club by mentoring young players and fostering the next generation of cricketers.

With his talent, leadership experience, and coaching expertise, Will Burston is sure to be a sought-after addition for any club both on and off the field.
