Will Cross (18) is a talented batter from Yorkshire, England.

Cross is an adaptable batter who can bat in any position. Strike rotates and digs in when necessary but can also go through the gears and accelerate quickly. A very good player of spin he likes to sweep and play off the back foot whilst he has the ability to hit the pace bowlers to any part of the ground.

The impressive Englishman plays for Yorkshire County Cricket Club 18s/Academy sides, and has aspirations to play the game at the highest level. The youngster is in his last year at the famous Scarborough College, and also playing in the Yorkshire Premier League for Clifton Alliance Cricket Club.

A very good fielder with clean hands and good anticipation. A tall leg spinner who generates lots of bounce and has multiple variations. Having scored 100s for Yorkshire age group teams, and for Clifton Alliance proving he can go big once set. A good teammate who will give everything for the team on the pitch and help the club off the pitch whilst also having a good time.

No doubt a talented lad, and one we see excelling in Australia.
