William Hofmann is a passionate and dedicated spin-bowling all-rounder from Surrey, United Kingdom.

At club level, the young slow left-arm spinner represents Horley Cricket Club in the Surrey Championship. A key contributor across both the Second and Third XI squads, Hofmann enjoyed a strong 2025 season, claiming 46 wickets across all competitions and formats. He will be looking to build on that success as he heads into the 2026 campaign.

William is also part of the Surrey State Schools squad, an initiative designed to provide talented players from state school pathways the opportunity to showcase their abilities to county selectors, often overlooked within traditional private school pathways.

With an exciting 12 months ahead, Hofmann is focused on producing another strong season for Horley before taking the next step in his cricketing journey with a maiden season on Australian soil, where he hopes to further develop his game in overseas conditions.

William is due to complete his ECB Core Coach qualification ahead of the 2026/27 season in Australia and is eager to become involved within a club's junior coaching structure, assisting with training sessions and giving back to the club by helping develop the next generation of cricketers.

Eager to experience cricket and life abroad, William would be a strong option for any club seeking a self-financing cricketer who is enthusiastic, hardworking, and keen to fully immerse himself in his host club's culture and environment.
