Will Means is a talented fast bowler from England. He is an opening bowler who naturally bowls back of a length with a heavy ball and also a hard-hitting lower-order batter.

In 2021 he took 34 league wickets with an average of 14.06 in the Norfolk Alliance Premier League for North Runcton Cricket Club. This included 2 two 5 wicket hauls which were game-winning performances, and the young quick was the main reason why the club had a solid mid-table finish.

Means has represented Norfolk CCC at Minor Counties level and also played for Leicestershire CCC 2nd XI. At club level he currently plays in the East Anglian Premier League for Great Witchingham Cricket Club and has been one of the stronger performers in the side, earning a recall to the Norfolk CCC side

The accredited level 2 coach is quite the talent who is looking to showcase this abroad again having recently played with Bayside Cricket Club for their Cricket Southern Bayside campaign, he took 22 wickets at 15, and chipped in with 278 runs at 25.

The talented all-rounder is now keen for another winter away. No doubt a player that will be in high demand.
