Yeasin Arafat Mishu is a talented Bangladeshi fast bowler who made his first-class debut in 2016, taking five wickets in his debut match. In 2017, he grabbed eight wickets in a List A innings, ranking 11th best globally. He plays for Barishal Division and Brothers Union in domestic cricket.

Yeasin Arafat (Mishu) is a bright, young, and highly talented fast bowler from Bangladesh.

The right-arm quick burst onto the First-Class scene in 2016, making an immediate impact with a five-wicket haul on debut and finishing with seven wickets in the match for Chittagong Division. Since then, Yeasin has developed into a key figure across formats, taking 100+ professional wickets in First-Class and List A cricket.

A genuine strike bowler, he consistently offers wicket-taking threat with both the red and white ball, combining pace, skill, and intelligence with ball in hand.

Now eager to embark on his maiden UK season in 2026, Yeasin is looking to follow in the footsteps of his peers who have excelled abroad. He comes highly recommended by Bangladesh legend and long-term CricX star Mohammad Ashraful, and possesses all the attributes to be a major presence in UK conditions.

A player whose highlights are well worth watching, Yeasin is a standout option for any club seeking a high-quality, attacking fast bowler for next summer.
