Yohan Maddege is a skillful leg-spinner and capable lower-middle-order batter currently plying his trade with Kandy Customs in Sri Lanka’s domestic circuit. Though a relatively late entrant to the professional game—making his List A debut in 2022 at the age of 26—Maddege brings with him a wealth of experience, particularly from his successful years in Australian club cricket.

Between 2017 and 2022, Maddege was a standout performer in the Mornington Peninsula Cricket Association, representing several clubs, most notably Baxter. During this time, he also had a brief stint with Victorian Premier side Frankston Peninsula. Over 105 matches in Australia, he amassed 1,226 runs and claimed 197 wickets at an impressive average of 15.27—figures that reflect his all-round value and consistent impact at the club level.

Keen to test himself in higher-level cricket, Maddege returned to Sri Lanka and broke into the Kurunegala Youth Cricket Club side for the 2022 SLC Major Clubs Limited Overs Tournament, where he immediately impressed with 9 wickets at 26.55. His performances earned him a move to Kandy Customs in 2023, where he continued to showcase his potential. He picked up 6 wickets at 17.00 in the Major Clubs T20 Tournament and followed that with 13 wickets at 23.92 in the first-class Major League competition.

Backed by trusted CricX names such as Imesh Udayanga, Umega Chathuranga, and Sachithra Perera, Maddege took his talents to the UK in 2025, joining Porthill Park in the highly competitive North Staffs and South Cheshire Premier League. While he may not have dominated the league statistically, he played a vital role within the side’s bowling unit and delivered several notable performances throughout the season.

Now with UK experience under his belt and a desire to further develop his game abroad, Maddege is eager to return for a second stint in 2026. With his attacking leg-spin, handy lower-order contributions, and strong professional attitude, he offers a well-rounded package for any club seeking a reliable overseas pro.
