Zac Wilson is a young promising seam bowling all-rounder from York in the UK.

Standing 6'8", the towering all-rounder helped Easingwold gain promotion last summer by winning the York Division 1 West title.

Wilson was a key performer for the side taking 29 wickets at 19.28 alongside 385 runs at 55, including a notable 114* from only 50 balls (with 12 sixes). His success culminated with the Club's 1st XI Player of the Year award.

The talented all-rounder is now eager to take his game to the next level and for his development is set to embark on a stint abroad having signed with Australian club Narre South for their 2022/23 Dandenong and District Cricket Association campaign.
