Zach Webb (18), an exciting young batting all-rounder from Kent, England.

Webb, a standout performer at the prestigious Bede's School, Webb has been a key figure in the 1st XI for several years. His batting prowess was on full display when he broke the school's batting record with a stunning 192*, playing a pivotal role in back-to-back National Quarter Final appearances.

At club level, he represents Tunbridge Wells Cricket Club, a powerhouse in the Kent Premier League. Due to school commitments, he has mainly featured in the 2nd XI, but has also stepped up to the 1st XI on multiple occasions.

Now, Webb is eager to test himself in Australian conditions with a full season Down Under, further refining his skills and embracing a new cricketing culture. Passionate both on and off the field, he is set to be a valuable asset to any club looking for a promising all-rounder.

A talented, driven cricketer ready to make his mark overseas.
