Zach Flaxman (19), an electric wicket-keeper from Manchester, England.

Coming through the ranks at his home club, Clifton Cricket Club. Zach captained all of the Junior sides and in 2023 lead the Club to an undefeated season, winning threee trophies and was awarded the MCP for the GMCL U18 competition.

Zach was awarded his 1st XI debut back in 2020, but it wasn't until 2022 when he cemented his place in the first and doning the gloves full time. Heading into the 2025 campaign, the Englishman has already notched up nearly 50 First XI games for the Greater Manchester Cricket Premier League side and continues to grow and be an ever present figure behind the stumps.

In 2024, Zach topped the league charts for the most dismissals with 27 catches and 13 stumpings.

Now embarking on his maiden stint down under, Zach feels it is the perfect time to continue to develop his game and emerge himself in Australia Club life.

Travelling with his partner and will require suitable accommodation.

No doubt a handy signing for any Club wanting a electric gloveman, who is wanting to be an every present member both on an off the pitch.
