Zoe Hainsworth is a batting all-rounder (Seam) from London, United Kingdom.

An accomplished top-order batter, tactical right-arm seam bowler, and proven leader, Zoe is the definition of a high-impact cricketer. Having captained the Hayes (Kent) CC Women's 1st XI for the last 4 seasons, Zoe has successfully fostered a culture of excellence, steering the club to two league titles: the Kent Women's Premier League title in 2023 and the Kent Women's Division 1 title in 2025.

As a player, Zoe is a technical top-order anchor with superb match awareness, combining a tight defence with a wide array of boundary options. Boasting a career average of 26.49 across 61 appearances, including 7 half-centuries and a career-best 77*. She is a dependable run-scorer against top-tier opposition, with the ability to bat deep into an innings.

During the 2025 season, she was named Hayes Women's 1st XI "Player of the year" courtesy of her standout season with the bat (330 runs at 55.00), including 3 half-centuries. The highlight being the 61* not out she scored in the Final, leading Hayes to the league title. Overall, she finished the season as the 5th-highest run scorer in the league.

Combined with her leadership acumen and batting ability, Zoe has a knack for breaking partnerships with the ball (career strike rate of 33.74). Regularly bowling consistent spells throughout the middle overs and excels when the ball is thrown to her.

Off the pitch, Zoe is a qualified coach (ECB Level 2) and is passionate about the development of Women's and Girls' Cricket. Since joining the Hayes (Kent) CC committee as Chair of Women's Cricket two seasons ago, the section has flourished.

Now eager to take her game to the next level and experience cricket and life in the Southern Hemisphere and no doubt be a great addition to any Club seeking a committed all-rounder for the 2026/27 campaign.
